INTRODUCTION

It has often been said that money does not bring happiness. It can ease some hardships, but on its own money does not make a person happy. Neither does money make a person feel rich. One person can feel wealthy with very little money, while another feels poor with a great deal. Money worries do not seem to subside when more is accumulated; in fact they often increase

In modern times more and more an indisputable link can be seen between integrity and finance. Money is not just a powerful symbol in culture but an important reality in everyday lives, as the Money, Finance and Business sections of daily newspapers attest. This report has highlighted some of the indicators in your Horoscope that point to your instinctual relationship with money. Sometimes the description might not match your experience or understanding, and sometimes contradictions can be read, but nonetheless the lessons are true. Reflecting upon the astrology will help you to become more aware of how money works in your life and how it is intimately bound up with your personal values. Money is not just a commodity, but is also a symbol of value and worth.

It is rare to meet someone who is indifferent to money. Money is a serious affair; it does matter. The word money finds its way into our modern language from the Latin word 'moneta' meaning mint. In the 3rd Century BCE the Romans established a mint at Juno Moneta's temple, which lasted for the next four centuries. The image of the goddess appeared on one side of the coin holding the scales in one hand and the cornucopia in the other, symbols of weighing up and balancing the abundance that the goddess provided. Ironically money has its taproot in a deeper wellspring.

Money plays an important role in your culture and society. It is also a psychological symbol and like all psychic complexes your relationship with it will be complex and complicated. As a psychic symbol, money is part of your fate; therefore becoming aware of your relationship with it helps you become more conscious of its patterns in your life. Gaining an understanding of money and its place in your life can greatly assist in helping you to accept your circumstances and live in an easier flow of life, and an easier relationship with money.

This report has been aimed at helping you understand what role money plays in your life, what you truly value and in helping you focus on your soul's purpose.

YOUR MONEY TEMPERAMENT

This section reflects on your Sun, Moon and Rising Sign (or Ascendant). The trinity of the Sun, Moon and Ascendant depict character and temperament. In this section each is considered separately, based on your Horoscope's perspective on money. In the last section of this report all three are blended into an ancient formula known as the Part of Fortune.

In your Birth Chart the Sun depicts a driving force and is key to your identity and distinctiveness. This section does not interpret your Sun Sign in general terms, but is referring specifically to how it shapes your attitude to money and possessions. In a way the Sun is indicative of what you value, what emphasis you place on money and possessions and your ability to attract riches. Being "rich" means different things to different people; therefore this section outlines what you value, how you might feel rich. Money does not always equal a feeling of being rich. Perhaps you value freedom more than you value money? Maybe you feel rich when you are surrounded by friends and plain simple fare? On the other hand, perhaps security and money are most important.

Your Sun Sign can indicate an ability to attain great wealth; for instance your Sun in the Sign of Capricorn, Taurus or Aries could indicate great wealth. Each of these Zodiac Signs has different traits that attract wealth in different ways. If your Sun resides in one of the Angular Houses (mentioned below in this report) then you also have the ability to be wealthy. The idea is that the Sun shines its light either dimly or brightly on the wealth sectors of your Birth Chart. The placement of your Sun also shows you how you shine in the world. If you are shining brightly then you are likely to attract health, wealth and happiness. You glow and are rewarded. Your warmth, goodwill and confidence attract attention and you are able to attract riches.

The Moon can also be a strong driver when it comes to financial matters, especially psychologically and emotionally. Emotions and money are strongly linked. "Retail therapy" is commonly acknowledged as an antidote to a "down" day, yet managing emotions with material band-aids is rarely going to address the underlying forces. While an understanding of your own emotional nature is vital for self-acceptance it is not part of this report's purpose. In this section the Money report outlines how your Moon and your emotions can influence your spending habits. When it comes to money your Moon can either help or hinder your ability to successfully handle money matters. Also what does money mean for you? What emotional need does it satisfy? Do you see money as a means of freedom, or does it provide security? Does money represent love? Do you feel more loved when someone shares their resources? These are the types of questions to ask and which your Moon will help you understand.

When reading this report take the best traits from both your Sun and Moon Signs and combine them to help you understand your value system and your emotional needs when it comes to money. This helps you learn how you can best approach your own attitude to money, your spending habits and how to invest. If your Sun and Moon are in the same Zodiac Sign then you reinforce the message and you need to look to your Ascendant to see how to best move forward.

Your Ascendant is outlined as a beacon that points to your purpose in life. While money is an important component it is rarely the source of true happiness. Your Ascendant depicts how you can find purpose and meaning in your life. This helps you inject your material world with spiritual values. Health, wealth and happiness are all derived from living a worthy life. A meaningful life is one which incorporates spiritual values, not just monetary ones. True joy is often felt when you are living in sync with your soul's purpose. This report focuses on money and its place in your Birth Chart and life, but true meaning also comes from living true to yourself. Your Ascendant is a primary signpost which guides you to a life of true worth.

The Sun is in Cancer

Money is not as important to you as emotional security. You value feeling safe, particularly the safety of your own home, family and close friends. You are a big softie! You value your loved ones so highly that you have difficulty saying "no". You put their needs before your own and this clouds your judgement when it comes to money matters. Unless you learn to the art of self-preservation then you are likely to struggle financially. This, of course, depends on other influences in your birth chart. However, Cancerians value emotional experiences, loving bonds, family relationships and tend to leave the money making to others. Therefore you are more likely to be an employee rather than a boss. Self-employment is likely to feel too insecure for Cancerian crabs unless it is a home or family business. You are more likely to enjoy working in a small business rather than in a large corporation as you value the connections and the intimacy. You are a born home-maker and nurturer. This is what you cherish and what makes you so important to the people in your life. Your ideal work is when your heart is involved – a job that involves your loved ones, a family business, one that gives you freedom to pursue your very personal objectives or one that provides a basis for you to nurture others. The good news is that once you have made up your mind that money is a necessity and a powerful force for good, then you can squirrel away money for a rainy day. Slowly but surely you make up for lost time. You may have to keep your little hoard a secret, but that's ok if it protects you and helps you look after your own financial interests for a while. You may also enjoy investing your time and money in your own home, and perhaps even the property market. After all who knows your loved ones may need shelter one day and you could provide it!

The Sun is in the 7th House

This is an auspicious placement of the Sun in your Birth Chart. Ancient astrologers place great importance on the Angular Houses of a Birth Chart. These Houses includes the 1st, 4th, 7th and 10th Houses. In your case the Sun is shining brightly in the 7th House of your Birth Chart indicating health, wealth and happiness in connection with marriage and business partners. Ancient astrologers also believe that this placement indicates wealth through lawsuits, foreign affairs, theft and war. Perhaps this is because of your ability to form strong alliances. You shine brightly when forming close bonds with others. You can form strong allies who bring riches when your Sun shines brightly in this sector of your Birth Chart. You are loyal and generous in your primary relationships and these favours are returned. Marriage can raise your status in society and bring riches. You shine brightly in any union. Business partnerships can also boost your reputation and coffers.

While it is likely that you benefit from marriage and business contracts, it is also possible that your partners' coffers are also boosted through their association with you. You need to be careful and choose personal and business partners wisely. This is due to the fact that your fortunes become so closely entwined. On the whole this has a positive outcome for you. You are co-operative, flexible and well able to work closely with others. Partners remain loyal to you for long periods of time, possibly your lifetime. However, you need to ensure that others afford you the same respect that you offer them. Money is easily accrued but other factors may be more important to you. Your Astrology indicates the ability to attract money through partnership, but true abundance may also be the ability to express your creativity, your freedom and your own self while in partnership. You are truly wealthy when you can incorporate all of these things in your own life.

The Moon is in Libra

You are a born negotiator, a trait that can be very handy when it comes to brokering financial deals. However, are you interested? It is unlikely unless you have other key money indicators in your Birth Chart. It is more likely that you seek peace, harmony and beautiful surroundings. The arts, fashion, and design are appealing. In some cases you may gain solace from helping others find peace and harmony in their own lives, through counselling, legal work or diplomacy. Of course these areas can help you attract riches, but money-making is unlikely to be your goal. In some cases you may even consider money is a dirty word, because so often conflict, arguments and harsh judgment calls are required in financial negotiations. These are all things that upset your equilibrium. Other people's attitude to money may be quite perplexing. From your perspective you are only willing to consider monetary matters when these can be discussed peacefully and harmoniously. When your Moon is in the Zodiac Sign of Libra the importance of values is highlighted. You like to develop a set of values that can guide you, and your dealings with others, when it comes to fiscal matters. This helps calm your feelings, and gives you the confidence to negotiate fair and equitable financial arrangements. You may be tempted to let others deal with the paperwork, the banks and the trust funds. However, this is unwise as not everyone is as fair minded as you when it comes to money. One of your life lessons is assertion. This also extends to money matters. For instance you need to be sure that you are receiving fair pay for fair work or a good return on your bank balance. Another of your life's challenges is that you like to reach consensus before making decisions. The process is far more important to you than the end-result. This has its pros and cons. Those who are similar in nature to you are likely to appreciate your inclusive and considerate approach to money and business matters. However, people with a more direct approach are likely to become frustrated and then you are faced with the conflict that you so earnestly want to avoid. Sometimes the best approach is to find a financial advisor who you trust to handle your money matters. Then you can surround yourself with talented people, work in a team and focus on the things that really matter to you – like-minded people, creative projects and developing your higher self.

The Ascendant is in Sagittarius

The effervescent nature of Sagittarius is prominent when placed on the Ascendant in your Birth Chart. Your enthusiasm for life and the adventures that it offers is contagious. As such you are a natural teacher, traveller, philosopher and educator. Your purpose is not so much linked with money but rather with the riches that can be gained from education and knowledge. Life has meaning when you are "getting wisdom". You're open-minded, honest, idealistic, jovial, impulsive and a sometimes deep thinker. You view life as a continual adventure with many exciting lessons, experiencing good fortune on your travels. Your irrepressible enthusiasm is irresistible, and others are keen to join your adventures. You're ardent, affectionate, and kind-hearted. Your biggest challenge when it comes to money is showing restraint. You are likely to attract money and good fortune throughout life but you need to learn to use your own, and other people's resources wisely. Grandiose money making schemes and expensive holidays can quickly dry up funds. If you can restrain your impulses and harness your positive traits then you're likely to be fortunate in life and an inspiration to others. If you would like to focus on a positive affirmation connected to money then with your Sagittarian Ascendant you could use this one from "Creating Money – Keys to Abundance" by Sanaya Roman and Duane Packer "Everything I do brings me aliveness and growth".

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH MONEY

Venus

Intrinsic to Venus is beauty. During her perfectly symmetrical cycle she is brightly visible in morning and evening skies at different times. Her disappearance out of the western skies and resurrection in the east led the ancients to see her as a dual goddess of both heaven and earth. Venus is pleasure and beauty, both in body and in spirit.

In astrological tradition Venus symbolises what is attractive, pleasurable, beneficial and advantageous. Her heavenly and earthy aspects shine through her connection with the Zodiac Signs Libra and Taurus. In her earthy Taurean domain she embodies the values and resources of the material world representing what you find attractive as well as your ability to be attractive. Venus is the law of attraction placing value on what is worthwhile; therefore energetically attracting what is of substance. Being aligned with resources, treasures, fortunes and ornaments, Venus became associated with money as a commodity of exchange. On an economic level Venus symbolises money, as the unit of trade. Venus is relationship-orientated; hence money implies exchange and trade. Money invites us to forge a relationship with what we find attractive, pleasurable and worthy, not only materially, but psychologically and spiritually as well. Venus's two sides make a whole; in her spirited and aesthetic side, she needs a soulful relationship with the material world. In this way she represents an inner sense of worth and value that yearns to be appreciated, honoured and respected. In psychological jargon this is your self-esteem, your inner worth, innate values and authentic merit. Venus symbolises the process of becoming worthy and deserving to feel abundant, pleased and prosperous.

Being the goddess of sexuality and love, Venus also focuses on relating. Venus themes in relationship centre on shared values, feeling loved and appreciated, pleasure, affection and sensuality. Therefore, Venus's archetypal pattern often gets entangled in issues of both love and money, as popular song lyrics often illustrate. Are diamonds really a girl's best friend? Is it true that money can't buy me love? Can money compensate or substitute for love? Venus' rulership over money is multidimensional: on the material level it is cash and currency, stocks and bonds, funds, investments, assets, capital, diamonds and gold. On other levels it is your personal values and inner aesthetics. On a deeper soulful stratum it is in your self-acceptance and self-love where money's taproot finds its sustenance.

Following is a reflection on the Zodiac Sign of your Venus in your Birth Chart including what you might be attracted to and what you attract to you. What are your money patterns, issues and strengths? Venus too symbolises your authentic attitudes to deeply-held personal values, internal worth, self-esteem and your capacity to love. Ironically it is this capacity to love and give freely that is the key to the lock on your money vault. Let's consider your Venus sign as a metaphor for your personal law of attraction and your innate relationship and attitudes towards money and values.

Venus is in Leo

Leo is a fixed fire sign so its flame burns brightly and constantly. With Venus in the sign, you instinctively value a steady pace, perhaps even are wary of being rushed. When it comes to money-making projects, this is wise to remember, as there's another edge to Leo which enjoys the nice things in life. Well that depends on your definition of nice things, but to Leo it means spending money and generally lots of it if you can. Being well-dressed, well-groomed and well-housed is important, so without enough money you might feel underprivileged. Therefore the power of fixity is important to remember in establishing your financial routines; you may be prone to impulse spending when you have the money, even gambling it on what promises to be a sure thing, but more often than naught money flows out rather than in. With the power of fixity you can invest a portion of your earnings in predetermined plans and become more aware of what you can spend. Yes this sounds very boring, but think of it as a game. Money is a game you can play and you need to play it well to win. There is no doubt you have the chutzpah and flair to not only win the game of money but also do well at it. One of Oscar Wilde's famous one-liners was 'anyone who lives within their means suffers from a lack of imagination'; how important your imagination is in attracting money.

Leo also rules the heart and matters of the heart are of essential to your sense of self esteem. Foremost this speaks about the value of those you love. You value fidelity and strength and are attracted to those who are proud and passionate, being fiercely loyal and devoted to those you love. In an intimate partnership your partner's ambitions and attitudes towards money are central to a successful relationship. You invest a lot in supporting your partner's success and worth in the world. If you are in a committed relationship, reflect on how you support each other's values and if you share common goals on the question of money and financial security. Another crucial affair of the heart is with your own self expression and creativity. When you find the essence of your own unique creative ability and express it, then you are better able to tap into your feelings of wealth. When you begin to open your heart to your own creative self expression, you open the door to wealth. Money is not significant in itself but as a symbol of recognition, praise and approval for your creative work, it is vital. Franklin D. Roosevelt summarised it well when he said, 'Happiness is not in the mere possession of money; it lies in the joy of achievement, in the thrill of creative effort.'

You have so much to offer, so how do you begin to value that? Without a sense of self worth or belief in your capabilities, you might be susceptible to projecting your own self worth and values onto others, exchanging your lack of esteem for someone else's inflation. When you doubt your sense of worth you tend to overestimate others. Hence it is important to take an inventory of your resources and what you offer. Your passion, originality, charisma and unique creativeness are what you might see reflected in the mirror of others; therefore by valuing these in your own right, you find your innate worth.

With Venus in Leo money is significant to your identity. When your identity is attached to the outer image in the world, then money allows you to be seen as successful and attractive. But when you also recognise that money is the reflection of your innate worth, you become much more creative and authentic in your relationship with it. Your law of attracting money is connected to the heart. Following your own heartbeats, not others, leads to your worth. Finding your own unique and authentic expression is valuable and therefore attracts money, the symbol of your deeply creative self.

YOUR PERSONAL INCOME

Saturn is in the 2nd House

To ancient astrologers the planet Saturn defined the edge of the Solar System, the last visible god who wandered about the Sun. As such it became known as the boundary keeper, the limit to what can be seen or known and the authority that dealt out the consequences of inappropriate action. Placed in the sector of your resources and finances it is important that you have a conscious awareness of Saturn to support your innate attitudes towards self worth and value. This suggests that tradition, caution and security in how you approach the sphere of money and finances will be important.

Saturn was also connected to time and aging, as if time were the key to wisdom. In this sense it is important to be a long-term investor rather than a short term one. Saturn does not value what is transitory or impermanent, but finds worth in what builds up over time. As time goes by your assets will appreciate and grow. You derive a great satisfaction when your investments mature, your mortgage is paid off or your assets are sold after they have been of value and service to you. As you value time and its natural law of maturation, anything too fast or too sudden will not suit your investment style.

Similarly when it comes to making your living you will be cautious and hard working, as ethically you value what has been truly earned through effort and conscious application. Therefore your attitude towards material possessions will also be the same, valuing what is of good quality and well made, and mistrusting what is cheap and readily available. It is wise to build your financial portfolio over time, not rushing into anything or getting caught up in get rich quick schemes. Also it is prudent to recognise that you value employment where there is a strong structure, is well established and where you have room for advancement. As a symbol Saturn rules what is durable, long-lasting, hardened and able to be structured like lead or concrete; industries like building or agriculture and businesses that have long range goals, are traditional and well-established. With Saturn in the 2nd, these are images that will resonate with you.

With the planet of consequence in your financial sector it is best you follow the letter of the law. Creative accounting, tax dodges and money laundering are not for you; if they are then you have an above average chance of being caught out and fined. Therefore it is important that when rules apply, you follow. Destiny has bound you to the economic system and it is in respecting the system that you find your wealth. This does not mean that you cannot be creative, but Saturnian creativity is in being well prepared and trained in your area of expertise.

It is wise to take your own advice and heed your own judgement when it comes to financial matters as you need to learn to be an authority in this realm. While you may seek approval and feedback in your handling of money matters, investments and savings, it might not be there. The reason is that you need to find your own way. Even though you would prefer that you were mentored, fate has placed the responsibility for financial success in your own hands. This might make you feel anxious about money, even alone in it all, but authentically you have what it takes to find the successful economic route.

Saturn can be highly self-critical. This may have begun in your family of origin when there might have been strict policies and austere attitudes about feelings of worth. You may have internalised a sense of feeling disapproved of which aggravates your struggle to create a healthy sense of self-esteem. You may have been highly criticised for your values when you were younger or chastised for what you liked. And today you may still be rebelling against these standards by participating with a negative version of your worth. Saturn in the 2nd suggests a road to recovery. That is recovering the authenticity and authority of your own worth and value.

While you are susceptible to listening to experts and specialists in economic management, these authorities may not be right for you. Yes you might feel alone in sorting out your financial portfolio but this is necessary for you to be able to differentiate between what is right for you. Projecting expertise in this area onto others is loaded, as their agendas for financial gain may not suit you. Time to reassess; no sense perpetuating negative feelings about what you are worth. You need to take stock of your resources. Take a personal inventory and you will find a wide array of valuable resources that support you which need to be valued, including organisational skills and professionalism, self discipline, competency, being highly responsible, trust worthy, dedicated and respectful. Sound management of your resources makes it likely that you will earn your income in an executive or managerial capacity. Like the mountain goat you are adept at starting at the bottom of the mountain and slowly climbing to the summit of your success. However the key to this is maintaining your integrity, self-respect and valuing the process of time.

In an insecure world, one in which money 'experts' and economic advisors don't really know what is going to happen, it is nice to know that you have a long-term financial plan and that your hard work and constancy towards this plan will pay off. At the end of the day you are your own best financial planner.

2nd House Cusp is in Capricorn

The Sign Capricorn, which has a reputation for fiscal responsibility and monetary expertise, is on the cusp of your 2nd House. This suggests that your attitudes towards economic opportunities and financial security are bound up with your sense of self-esteem and personal worth. Qualities of responsibility, duty, conservatism and pragmatism shape your approach to money. However you are also as likely to rebel against this traditionalist view of wealth as it feels restrictive and authoritative. Hence your parents' attitudes to money also play a role in shaping yours.

You might have inherited strong morals about money, conservative messages about how to earn a living or cautionary tales about extravagance. Therefore you may feel as if you are battling an inner demon when it comes to your relationship with money or even earning a living. However the truth is that you have your own rules about money making and need to reflect on what these are. You might be prone to either rebelling against or falsely aligned with the values you have inherited. Consider what your goals are and you might find that you are more ambitious and goal orientated than you might have imagined. However your ambition is to do the best at whatever you choose. Therefore it is necessary to be able to support yourself in whatever decisions you make. Destiny suggests you might feel unacknowledged and unsupported in your career choices. This is probably true; however it changes when you begin to become your own authority, acclaim what you want and acknowledge your accomplishments.

Capricorn is a Sign of authority and embedded in its psychology is the awareness of consequences; therefore it brings its consciousness of rules and regulations to the sphere of earning an income. This methodical and more serious approach to money matters may conflict with a side of your personality that wants to feel free and unconstrained by rules and duty. Therefore it is important recognise that work and career are lifelong processes and over time there are many conflicting needs to attend to. Time is also Capricorn's domain and so it is best to perhaps have a long term goal for money rather than a short term. This might free up some of your time to feel you can have the adventures but come back later to the serious business of making money. It is easier to be disciplined, responsible and authoritative as life develops. Perhaps it is wise to recognise that you will grow into these qualities and develop these resources as you mature and not hold yourself back from experimentation and adventure.

Your innate strengths and resources are best supported in a system where you feel you can be in charge or in control; therefore you are satisfied when you have jurisdiction over your own territory or are self-employed. While you might be anxious at going it alone, deep down you know it is what your heart desires. Respect is important and therefore when you find the right place where your talents and skills are respected and validated you thrive. Unfortunately, however, you may first experience the lack of integrity and competence in the work world before you are able to create your own niche.

You are economical and able to grow into your resources. You develop the awareness of your assets over time, even though they have already been there. You don't recognise them until they may have had some experience of acknowledgment. Being true to this image suggests that you develop a strong base as you mature. In fact you respect yourself more knowing you have earned everything you have. The secret of your success lies in the knowing that you have worked hard for what you have accomplished and that you are secure on the wheel of fortune. Security is important and money can provide that. And you feel so much more secure with money in your wallet, not just credit cards. Debt does not fit the traditionalist view of money but you are challenged to look beyond the money models given to you and find the one that you feel in charge of.

Since Capricorn is on your 2nd House cusp, the opposite Sign Cancer rules your 8th House. This House polarity in the horoscope symbolises the continuum between mine and ours, or your attitudes and reactions to sharing resources with others. The 2nd House is your bank account, but the 8th is the joint account. With Capricorn on the 2nd, you are reliable and honourable in your money matters. When this attitude towards money is valued by your intimate and business relationships, you find that emotional security and safety grows. This is the exchange for your fiscal proficiency. Resources are not only materialistic. With this combination value lies in your innate ability to administer and be responsible for your resources. When you feel emotionally safe and secure with others in a close and dependant relationship your skills at providing and accumulating wealth is increased.

Ruler of the 2nd House is Saturn ...and Saturn is in the 2nd House

Mythological Saturn has always been associated with time, whether that was with the cyclical nature of the agricultural seasons or the timelessness of the Golden Age. But human time is experienced through the process of ageing; therefore Saturn became linked to the grim reality of age, old age in particular. In astrology the planet Saturn sometimes has the reputation for being leaden and dull, cold and melancholic. Perhaps Saturn reminds us of the tough times, reality and hardships of our lives. Psychologically Saturn is more focused on the tough tasks of self management, self responsibility, discipline and autonomy. Saturn is a sense of self mastery which takes an enormous amount of hard work. And hard work along with setting appropriate boundaries, fostering self improvement, accountability and being personally responsible is Saturn's territory. As ruler of your House of personal finance he can bring his acumen and business skills to work. But he is keen on getting the time correct, following the rules and being respectful of tradition and laws. Saturn ruling your 2nd House asks that you be aware of the limits and bring a sense of hard work and integrity into the sphere of your financial concerns.

With Saturn ruling the 2nd House of your Birth Chart and in the same House there is a twofold focus on the necessity for security and reliability in your financial portfolio. For your own security it is best that you feel as safe as possible when it comes to investments and spending. You value possessions that are durable and long-lasting and therefore this approach will also apply to your investment portfolio. No doubt you want to maintain a keen eye on your financial future and that is best accomplished through a reasonable and dependable financial plan. It is best to know that your resources are anchored in the most reliable program possible before you feel that you can take some risks or spend a bit more freely. However you may also have the tendency to become too attached to finances, counting and recounting your assets in an attempt to feel more secure. This behaviour is often driven by periods of emotional insecurity which is transferred to your financial standing. Best you can do is realise you have taken all the precautions and opportunities possible and then find a way to relax. Best to know you have an innate business sense when it comes to money and therefore you will be fine. And there are possibilities that along the way gains will be made from long term investments, an inheritance and some valuable possessions.

SHARING YOUR INCOME

While the 8th House is the House of sharing, astrologers call this the House of STD: sex, taxes and death. Another version of the key initials STD and this house is “sexually transmitted debt”. The 8th House seems to be where love and trust get entangled with money. When the seal of trust is broken the joint finances are too! So it is important to look at this area of the Horoscope to consider how you best deal with money when others are involved. This could mean your family of origin, your intimate partner or business partner, even your bank and financial advisor. The 8th House is opposite the 2nd House and therefore forms the natural polarity between what is mine and what is ours. The 2nd House could be thought of as your personal worth, your cash flow on a daily, weekly, monthly or yearly basis. The 8th House then could be considered your overall worth, the dam or the reservoir of your full value. Its mystique is in the depth of its values.

The ancient astrologers’ view of the 8th House was mainly about death and questions concerning loss especially gains from loss, such as inheritances or debts. Death and debts are still linked together in our words such as mortgage and amortise. While the modern usage of amortise is a gradual payment of debt, in earlier usage it was withholding property after death. While mort refers to death, amor refers to love. This is the mysterious 8th House amalgam between death, debt and love. A more contemporary outlook scrutinises the 8th House for the link between intimacy and prosperity as well the capacity for sharing resources. In an emotional sense the 8th House is about comfort with intimacy and this becomes a barometer of your ability to share money with those you love.

As the House of inheritance, it is the territory where you claim your familial legacy either psychologically, emotionally or financially. Unearthing your ancestral inheritance may not be as straightforward as you would wish, but the astrological nature of your 8th House will help you to reflect on your familial past and the attitudes towards money and love that you have inherited. The 8th House has also been traditionally associated with the landscape of the underworld. This of course is metaphoric of the unseen inheritances and legacies from the past; hence we might imaginatively think of the 8th House as where we could communicate with the dead. This sphere is where we encounter some skeletons in the family closet that might help reclaim our legacy. It is wise to remember that in antiquity the underworld was the source of buried treasure. Regent of the underworld was Pluto, the god of riches; hence the 8th House is also an area in the horoscope of hidden wealth.

Hidden in this house might also be family issues and legacies about money, wills and desires. Lurking in the familial past may be motifs such as emotional manipulation through money, debt, disputes regarding inheritances, the loss of family money or a deep-seated attitude towards financial control. What was the attitude towards debt or borrowing money that you inherited? What were the familial attitudes towards sharing resources? The 8th House is the place where the two sides of the family merge into one. Psychologically the 8th House reveals the capacity for or the lack of familial intimacy and closeness; therefore, planets here will not only describe the family inheritance, but secret alliances and taboos in the family. Interred in the 8th House are the familial gains and losses which are passed down through the generations. These gains and losses might be financial as in monetary bequests and inheritances or a familial story of debt. In many cases the gains and losses are emotionally based. The Zodiac Sign on the cusp of the 8th House is the gateway to this intimate area and as such is important in considering how you access this part of yourself. Ultimately the question is how much do you trust yourself to make the right decision in love and money?

As a barometer of closeness, the 8th House refers to the degree of parental intimacy that was experienced growing up. You observe your parents' trust of one another with money and resources. How were they able to share what they had with one another on and what were the primal patterns that you first felt in terms of sharing emotionally and lovingly? Arguments about money are often never really about money but the sense of feeling unloved, unacknowledged or unmet. The template of how you might share your personal resources with others you love is set down early in the atmosphere of the family and affects your feelings of financial trust in adult life. The attachment, emotional security and parental issues of your early life, yet not resolved, will be prone to being re-experienced in an adult way through intimate relationships. You also 'marry' into or relate to your partner's psychological, emotional and financial composition. The will and testament of those who have passed exert their influence on the emotional well-being of those in the present and issues concerning legacies, will, inheritance, shared resources and family trusts are all part of this terrain. Wills of the 8th House also refer to the will of those who have past and still exert emotional and financial control.

The 8th House is a house of mystery and mastery in being true to your deepest self while participating in the world. It depicts how the currents that flow within the financial world, the economic cycles and seasons influence the money market and you. In the 8th House you can see your ability to tune into subtle energies, and to act with integrity and utilise them for your own and others better good. From the perspective of money the 8th House will help you reflect on your buried treasures, your capacity to share and enjoy the pleasures of life with others, your legacies and inheritances as well as the patterns that either keep you indebted to others or able to be resourceful in relationship. Much of the 8th House is a mystery, a secret even unto yourself but this report helps you try to understand what this compelling place means for you.

Venus is in the 8th House

This is a strong placement for marriage and partnership, and the benefits that come from both of these. In other words you can benefit emotionally and financially from being wedded and/or entering a business partnership. Love, sex and money go hand in hand. When the planet Venus is placed in the 8th House of your birth chart you demand a high level of commitment from both your personal and business partners. Some people might groan at the thought of entering a business partnership, risking their hard-earned money and having to rely on other people. Not you. Joint projects, in particular business ones, are a source of fulfilment. You're able to stay focussed on the task ahead enjoying the challenge and the thought of the possible rich rewards. Depending on other influences in your birth chart, you're likely to benefit financially through joint projects, particularly business partnerships with your spouse. You're also likely to receive monetary gifts through some form of inheritance. Your business may be based in a goods and services industry, or it could be that you enjoy utilising resources of a different kind, either your own or other people's. You attract the right sort of business at the right time because of your charm and good sense of building good business relationships. You value the experience of learning the ropes, and appreciate the cycles of life and the economy. While partnership features strongly in your life, you are also likely to enjoy accumulating wealth through other ways such as trust funds, savings, investment, and gifts. Venus is also linked with the commodity Copper. You may also enjoy a little wager every now and then trusting in your own luck and winning. Whether you do win or not will depend on other aspects of your Birth Chart. You will know from experience.

Uranus is in the 8th House

The planet Uranus is in the 8th House of your birth chart suggesting that sharing resources is a problem when it comes to marriage and business partnerships. This erratic planet can work in your favour with sudden windfalls, but you are better advised to keep your finances independent from others, unless you have other favourable influences. With this placement money and shared assets become an unknown factor in marriages and business partnerships. You may experience sudden losses through marriage and business partnerships. Either you or your partner is unreliable once the money is pooled and the money level keeps going down rather than remaining stable or appreciating. Sometimes you can experience a surprise acquisition, but it is more likely that this planet has an unfavourable effect. Even if you do marry a rich person, win or inherit a large amount of money you have difficulty hanging on to shared resources. Perhaps you are a spendthrift or perhaps you are a philanthropist. This depends on other parts of your chart, but this placement suggests that partnerships are unreliable when it comes to shared resources. The best path is keep your finances separate, to be independent and look after your own financial resources. Although you may be upset by the circumstances surrounding partners and money, your lesson is to detach from material loss or gain. Circumstances are likely to be out of control. All you can control are your own feelings. For instance a favourite Aunt or Uncle may bequeath money and gifts to others in your family circle and you miss out. This can be upsetting, but you need to remind yourself that an unknown factor is at play. You need to adapt quickly to such circumstances. This you will quickly see the bigger picture. Life is easier once you accept that you're unlikely to benefit from partnerships and legacies, unless there are other positive aspects in your chart. Look to other planets in this house and the section that outlines the ruler of this 8th House to see if the positive or negative influences are stronger. Sooner or later you are likely to seek answers to your questions, but your questions need to be of a metaphysical nature rather than a material one. The world's resources, Mother Nature's cycles, the cycles of the stock market and their link to other universal cycles, the cycle of life and death etc. All of these can hold a certain fascination. Once you are free from material concerns then you are liberated to seek a more metaphysical path. This is why your material world is so unpredictable. Your soul is urging you to be free of material constraints and seek a meaningful path.

Venus is in the 8th House ...and Venus is Sextile Mercury

This is not a major influence in your Birth Chart but this combination of the planets Venus and Mercury does indicate that you have a talent which you can make the most of, whether or not you pursue this for financial reasons. Venus is the planet of beauty and artistry and therefore your talent may be connected with communicating these traits in some form. You may have a talent as a writer, a dancer, artist, beautician, fashion consultant or designer, or some such connected activity. Justice and fair play may be important aspects of how you like to interact with other people. When it comes to other people's resources then you are likely to be able to connect with the right people, those who can help you invest your time, energy and money well. You may also receive gifts that enable you to pursue your passions. Love affairs may be a little tricky, but these can also help you clarify your own needs for intimacy and sharing.

Venus is in the 8th House ...and Venus is Square Mars

This is a strong wealth indicator in your Birth Chart. This is because Mars, the planet of drive and ambition, is lending its force to your fortunate Venus in a money sector of your Chart. Venus is the attractor and therefore you are able to attract other people's resources – gifts, rewards, legacies, bonuses etc. However, Mars is a go-getter and so you are also well able to forge ahead and make the most of your good fortune. When it comes to sharing your resources you need to make sure that reason not passion influences your decisions. Your earnings could easily be caught up in your passions. Fast cars, women (men) and money are not necessarily good investments. Illicit love affairs are also likely to land you in financial hot water. However, you are likely to use your good sense and make the most of your investments. You may be passionate about your work and your investments. This is a good combination for a business person, who is ardent about their products or services. You may pour your energies into working for a financial institution, helping others with their finances, in human resources or in any form of counselling. Your drive and ambitions are strong. You are not necessarily seeking out self-aggrandisement or career recognition, but you do need to feel that you are making a difference, connecting with others. Paradoxically those closest to you may be a source of discomfort. As a child you are likely to experience a sense of competition, rather than co-operation and comfort, with your peers and siblings. As a result you are uncomfortable sharing your toys early in life, and your assets later in life. Family disputes can easily erupt over money matters, legacies, gifts etc. As a result the energy that you pour into your own life is likely to far outweigh that which you dispense to family members and loved ones. When it comes to shared resources other parts of this report will indicate whether or not you earn a lot, but this section depicts the ease with which you dispense with your wealth.

Venus is in the 8th House ...and Venus is Conjunct Uranus

In your case the planet Venus is combining with the unpredictable Uranus indicating that your fortunes can take a sudden turn for the better or for the worse. Usually with the beneficial influence of Venus this could be a sudden influx of capital, but you need to be wary of taking unnecessary risks. You may benefit from the guiding hand of a more conservative financial adviser before risking your accumulated wealth on any business venture. Get rich quick schemes are unlikely to be beneficial, despite your general good luck. However, unusual enterprises, scientific exploration, metaphysical matters, technological inventions and such like ventures could prove financially rewarding. Your nature is passionate and your enthusiasm boundless, but you need to direct this into rewarding rather than pointless schemes. What really lights your fire? What would you pursue whether it paid dividends or not? The answers to these questions are likely to help give you true purpose and meaning, which ultimately are the richest rewards in life.

Uranus is in the 8th House ...and Uranus is Sextile Mercury

Oh what fun you can have with the resources that come your way. The two most mischievous planets – Mercury and Uranus – are combining to influence your external resources. Surprises abound when it comes to gifts, inheritances and investments. Whether you earn small sums, or large amounts, you have many ideas on how and where to invest your income. You fare well by having a diverse financial portfolio. This is definitely not an eggs all in one basket combination. You may experience some reckless urges to invest in get-rich-quick schemes but you are unlikely to profit, unless you have other very favourable influences in your Birth Chart. You would be better advised to consider all of your options before parting with your earnings. This includes both private and business ventures. Marriage can be an exciting prospect, but you need to be cautious about sharing your money and assets. Separate finances may be a favourable path for you. You are likely to have many ideas about how to increase your fortune. Your challenge is to stay focused. Creative visualisation, NLP, self-help books and investment courses could all be beneficial. However, you are also likely to learn how to invest wisely through your own experiences. Juggling your investments eventually becomes second nature.

Uranus is in the 8th House ...and Uranus is Square Mars

When Uranus is in the 8th House of other people's money the question is not whether or not you may become wealthy, but rather whether or not you can stay wealthy. The planet Uranus is unpredictable and therefore your ability to properly invest your personal earnings is also an erratic matter. You may not value material wealth, but rather the freedom that money can provide. Nevertheless you are likely to receive unexpected gifts, experience ups and downs in your investments and surprising rises and falls in any dividends that may be owed. Can you make the most of these windfalls when they come? When Mars is also linked with this planet then your assets are at risk. This is because any rash decisions are likely to influence your accumulated riches. You may not be concerned about material matters. You may favour risk taking, the excitement of the game of money rather than the steady growth of a financial portfolio. Slow returns on your personal earnings may be a matter of utter boredom for you. Therefore you could enjoy risky ventures, living on the edge and chasing adventure rather than material wealth. Your personal values play a large role in determining how prudent you are likely to be when it comes to external financial influences. Nevertheless you are likely to attract at least one cash fall or monetary boost during your life time. It is up to you how you invest it. It is also likely that a man, or men, influence your decisions. An unexpected event connected to a man in your life, is likely to give you cause to pause for reflection. You would be wise to be cautious when it comes to any personal or business association connected with men and money. If an opportunity seems too good to be true then this is likely to be a scam. You need to avoid other people who are scammers, any scam that attracts your attention, gambling and other risky investments. An exciting and opportunistic business venture may attract your attention. You need to take your ideas and plans to be examined by a steady adviser. It is also likely that you do not like to be tied down, preferring stimulation and change. You may be self-starter, self-employed or self-reliant. These are traits that can help propel you into good fortune.

8th House Cusp is in Cancer

The Zodiac Sign Cancer brings the images of care, family and security to the 8th house of shared belongings. At first glance we might assume that this suggests that family will be the key to unlocking the door to the shared pool of resources and finances. Or that a family business, inheritance or legacy will provide a secure financial future. This might be true if your family's attitudes to money and financial security helped to support you. However, in many cases there is often a family legacy that has not provided the emotional support or security for the future. The atmosphere and functionality of the family is of course dependant on the rest of the chart; however its financial legacy is passed through the 8th. Therefore your attitudes to shared resources and how you manage your money with intimate others are very much influenced through the family storyline of money and shared resources. If you have inherited conservative messages about spending and sharing your resources, you may need to challenge these. Your approach to life and relationships is a lot freer than the mind-set you might have inherited. Therefore one of the first steps to working successfully with the 8th house is to reflect on how you may still be participating with familial attitudes towards money that do longer serve you.

On the other hand what is hidden in the vault of your family resources? Are there valuable antiques, stocks, bonds or other investments from the past that need to be dealt with? This might be a metaphorical question, as it alludes to some value hidden in the family collections. Of course what is of value is not always material, and with Cancer here, what is of greatest worth is closeness and kin. However, this might not always be possible with family. You may find that when you feel secure in a circle of close friends or are creating a familial atmosphere in your life, you are more relaxed and secure about money. If you have moved away from the family environs you may find that your income and cash flow might still be dependent on others due to the service or creative aspects of your work. However, this time you might be in charge of who you are in relationship with rather than feel at the expense of it, as you may have done earlier in life.

Family trust is a curious concept here as it literally talks on one hand about a company that might be set up based on family alliances for both tax purposes and protection of family assets. Yet on the other hand it talks about the levels of emotional confidence and safety in the family. These are both entwined; when there is a level of emotional honesty, protection and custody then the ability to feel confident in sharing with others on both emotional and financial levels is at hand. But when the trust is lacking then the individual may feel alone when it comes to providing for themselves. Yet it circles around again; when an intimate relationship and family is forged in adult life the complex arises again. Trust becomes a key, but it is trust in oneself that is primary. In adult life the forging of deeply connecting and trusted relationships helps to establish a secure financial base.

Cancer is often in the past rather than the present. Again this suggests the wisdom in reflecting on the past but not being caught up in it. You can always start again when it comes to financial investing or building assets. Time is a key and it will take time; therefore, you learn to have many different timing devices in your life. You might have one when you plan your adventures and your travels but you need another clock when planning your investments. That one is a bit slower and has a longer time range. Over time you find that your investments from the past, be they material like a family home, emotional like a solid partnership or devout like a spiritual practice really do pay off.

Therefore the secret to your financial security is that assets and resources are not just materialistic. They are multi-layered and for you the best investments are in support of your emotional security and closeness. Money cannot change the past nor replace the pains of what went before, but it can help provide a sheltered foundation and reinforcement for the present so that you can feel surrounded by the security you have created.

Ruler of the 8th House is The Moon ...and The Moon is in the 10th House

The Moon ruling the 8th House of your Birth Chart softens your approach to financial assets. Rather than acquiring wealth for the sake of power, self-worth and ambition your feelings are important. For this reason you are likely to want to invest in a home, which provides security and comfort. Your personal spending may or may not assist this process, but if you are able to hold on to your money then you are likely to seek a partner and a comfortable home so that you have a home base. This does not have to be a large home, but it does have to be a place where you feel safe. Even if other aspects of your chart suggest travel and/or work are priorities, you will still seek the security of knowing that you have a home base. When the Moon is also in the 10th House of your Birth Chart then you are likely to be more ambitious in your financial aspirations. You may link money with your standing in the community. Your career and reputation are important and the amount of money that you have may equate power and status. However, it is more likely that your career reflects your need for meaning and purpose. The more that you feel that your life has meaning the more that wealth is likely to flow.

YOUR FORTUNE

The Part of Fortune

Fortune has come to mean money and wealth; yet in the ancient world it referred to chance or luck. Both are interconnected. In your Horoscope you will have a “Part of Fortune” an astrological point which suggests some clues about your quality and share of fortune be that chance or capital. One of astrology’s first authorities Ptolemy suggested that the Part of Fortune was primary to the circumstances that regulate the ‘fortune of wealth’.

The Part of Fortune is constructed from the three highly significant positions of the Sun, Moon and Ascendant that were discussed in the first section. In this section all three are merging to create an astrological image connected to our personal fortune. This report uses the formula dependent on whether you are born at night or if you were born during the day when the Sun was above the horizon. The Part of Fortune is an amalgam of body, soul and spirit. The Ascendant represents the physical environment and your levels of vitality, it is a primary gauge for well-being both in terms of health and wealth. Your Sun represents vital force, the spirit of health and heart, while your Moon symbolises the emotional and soulful aspects of being secure in the world. Since the alchemy of all three create the Part of Fortune, it came to be seen as an image of well being, connection, security and being well-placed in the world. This was considered to be prosperity; an ability to be supported by the world and access its abundant resources.

The Part of Fortune is also known as the Lot of Fortune. In ancient Greece, the concept for fate suggested a lot, a portion or what we were allotted in the lottery of life. The Greek word for fate was ‘moira’ and the Moirai were the three weavers of fate; those who measured, allocated and cut the threads of one’s life. With this lot, the ancient astrologers recognised that the tapestry created by weaving the three threads of the Sun, Moon and Ascendant together would be fortunate. To the Romans, Fortuna was chance and she spun the Wheel of Fortune. This wheel reminds us not only of the wheel of the zodiac, but the natural cycles and rhythms of life. Fortune is not static but cyclical by nature; hence the Part of Fortune becomes a powerful symbol in your chart that points to your lot on the wheel of fortune. In a contemporary way the placement of the Part of Fortune is where you honour and petition the goddess of chance and acknowledge your share of fortune.

As an ancient symbol in a contemporary context its placement in the Horoscope measures prosperity or where you align with the seed potential of your fortune. Its sign position will help you amplify innate qualities that are destined at times to be prosperous, while its house position will locate the setting to focus on to increase your chances in the lottery of life.

The Part of Fortune is in Pisces

With the Part of Fortune in Pisces, the Wheel of Destiny spins in your favour when you are not attached to the outcome. Accepting whatever happens is not being passive or sacrificial, but is an active recognition that there are forces greater than the self that control the wheel. You are fortunate when you are able to feel in sync with these forces. When you align your fortunes with more imaginative and receptive outcomes you find that you are in favour with the gods. For the more pragmatic, it is worth considering that your fortune lies outside the boundaries of what most regard as realistic - in more creative and inspired pursuits, perhaps in the company of artists, visionaries and prophets. When you think of how you are best suited to make your fortune it is towards these folk that you need to lean for advice. Being prosperous is not always found following mainstream ideas; for you it is a creative endeavour. Fortune is aligned with the imagination, as that is what allows you to access soul and give meaning to your life. With meaning you thrive. Without space for your imaginative process everything that is mysterious or unknown becomes projected onto matter and begins to happen outside, rendering the inner world barren and lifeless. And it is the inner world that animates your fortune.

Artists find their expression on a canvas, in a song, through movement or in a sonnet, and it is important that you too feel that you have a creative outlet, because when you place yourself in that position you feel well-off. Well-being comes through this connection to the other world; therefore it is beneficial to explore that area of life in whatever way you feel comfortable. Creativity is allowing a soulful expression in whatever you do, and being open to read the more subtle signs that are along your life path. Your ability to see past the material world, to sense possibility in things and to perceive potentialities and opportunities where others cannot is your creativity. And it is this creativity that is your fortune. Jupiter is the one who oversees your lot of fortune and its nature is to increase and expand; therefore this spirit guides you in that direction when you are in touch with your imaginative and spiritual faculties.

The Part of Fortune is in the 3rd House

When the Part of Fortune resides in the 3rd House of your Birth Chart there are many fortunate opportunities within your immediate surrounds. Your ability to forge links and connections within your family and a wider social circle assists you in creating relationships that can be advantageous to you. Your siblings and school friends may still be close by and they can be of great assistance when you are planning and launching your ideas and projects. You are fortunate in that close friends, associates or neighbours may also be able to lend a hand on your journey towards financial security. You benefit from close kinship and being actively involved with others in your immediate environment.

However, one of your best assets on the road to success is your ability to think things through, access information and news about trends and keep a clear head about all that you are managing. Multi tasking and being busy are beneficial, but what is fortunate is your knack of thinking things through. Literally in the sphere of communication, information, transportation, news, teaching and coaching you do well. Metaphorically you are in your element when you are able to connect the dots, spread the word and talk thing up. Therefore your Wheel of Fortune is busily turning with many balls in the air and many projects on the go. Your Part of Fortune indicates that you improve your chances when you are moving, talking things through and making connections. Fortune is keeping your money in circulation, as this is the way you spread the seeds for future financial fortune.
